

Careers - MSc in Entrepreneurship & Innovation Management

The MSc invites students to scan all major business topics from a very specific point of view: the one of the Entrepreneur. All stages of a business life would be covered, from launching to selling, through buyout, management and development. Participants would also become experts in the Entrepreneurship world specificities.

2015 Placement report

---

The programme aims to prepare participants for careers as:

- entrepreneurs
- corporate managers
- branch/office/project managers
- policymakers
- business development director
- export managers
- chief executive officers (CEO)
- chief operating officers (COO)
- business consultants