

Seminars

Business Ethics for Entrepreneurs

The seminar aims to teach students how to better frame ethical issues related to business and the economy, and to become more aware of the philosophical questions which underlie individual and collective decisions.

Strategic Leadership

The course brings together the dimensions of management (leadership), strategy and governance through an intellectual journey in top management teams.

